Re: Briefing on MVP to the Board

First, thank you for your timely intervention to extend the Forest Service Comment Period for the Survey Application. The items to report on at today's meeting are:

1. April 6 Community Meeting by Preserve Craig to prepare for MVP Open House on April 7. Purpose of this is to help citizens understand the FERC process and identify questions we want MVP EQT to answer.
2. April 7 MVP Open House – understanding its purpose.
3. Status of Requests to the FERC to delay NOI for at least 30 days after Open House.
4. Local questionable activities by EQT:
 - a. Survey on public roads.
 - b. Misuse of Postal Mailboxes.
 - c. Miss Utility / Craig Botetourt markings.
 - d. Helicopter flights – report on connection to EQT & MVP.
5. PRESERVE CRAIG report – fundraising, networking, science research, Facebook.
6. Nominations from Preserve Craig for BoS Pipeline Advisory Committee (PAC):

Sam Easterling (Co-Chair), Chuck Harris (Communications), Bonnie Joyce (Outreach), Nancy Nemec (Legal & Strategy), Larry Willis (Science), and Bill Wolf (Co-Chair)

Preserve Craig Steering Committee Members: Martha Dillard, Pam Easterling, Sam Easterling, Bill Gentry, Chuck Harris, Bonnie Joyce, Mary Keffer, Scott Klopfer, Marge Lewter, Nancy Nemec, Tracy Roberts, Gene Seago, Elisabeth Willis, Larry Willis, Bill Wolf, and Jim Workman
